Comparative Contract Law - Cases, Materials and Exercises

KADNER GRAZIANO, Thomas.

Available at: http://archive-ouverte.unige.ch/unige:114188

Disclaimer: layout of this document may differ from the published version.
Comparative contract law promotes a ‘learning-by-doing’ approach to comparative contract law and comparative methodology. This updated second edition of the first true student reader on the subject brings together extracts from legislation and court practice in a way that lets students experience comparative law in action. This unique guide to European and international contract law provides:

- an international perspective on highly topical, real-life issues of contract law;
- materials from some 30 jurisdictions in both their original languages, and in excellent translations;
- the chance for students to solve scenarios according to the laws of different jurisdictions and compare and evaluate the solutions and approaches they identify;
- the opportunity for students to familiarise themselves with real-world materials, to better understand the diverse approaches to modern contract law, and to develop their skills as comparative lawyers.

Essential reading for all students, practitioners, and scholars of comparative contract law and methodology, this second edition remains a vital practical guide for those seeking to familiarise themselves with real-world materials and to better understand the diverse approaches to modern contract law.

Thomas KADNER GRAZIANO is teaching at the University of Geneva, Switzerland.
COMPARATIVE CONTRACT LAW

SECOND EDITION

Promoting a ‘learning-by-doing’ approach to comparative contract law and comparative methodology, this updated second edition of the first true student reader on the subject brings together extracts from legislation and court practice in a way that lets students experience comparative law in action. This unique guide to European and International contract law provides:

• an international perspective on highly topical, real-life issues of contract law;
• materials from some 30 jurisdictions in both their original languages, and in excellent translations;
• the chance for students to solve scenarios according to the laws of different jurisdictions and compare and evaluate the solutions and approaches they identify;
• the opportunity for students to familiarise themselves with real-world materials, to better understand the diverse approaches to modern contract law, and to develop their skills as comparative lawyers.

Essential reading for all students, practitioners, and scholars of comparative contract law and methodology, this second edition remains a vital practical guide for those seeking to familiarise themselves with real-world materials and to better understand the diverse approaches to modern contract law.

Thomas KADNER GRAZIANO

is teaching at the University of Geneva, Switzerland.

An excellent book and a remarkable pedagogical tool. It very convincingly makes the case for the use of comparative law and is the ideal basis for a truly comparative and transnational legal class.”

Jean-Sébastien Borghetti, Université Panthéon-Assas (Paris II), France

“The presentations are well systematised, clear, and well written. They are a pleasure to read. Students who have been taught comparative law by the book are well armed.”

Cie Lando, Copenhagen Business School, Denmark

“The incorporation of Chinese law is particularly interesting for Chinese legal researchers and even for the Chinese legislator considering the dramatic ongoing codification movement taking place within Chinese civil law.”

Jiayou Shi, Renmin University, China

“The book provides a panoramic world map of contract laws in different jurisdictions. The methodology used is also of utmost value in doing comparison on other subjects of comparative law.”

Xiangshun Ding, Renmin University, China

“The perfect textbook for teaching this subject and for inspiring students. The book offers the unique opportunity to understand and master the challenges of cross-border contracting, which is quintessential for legal practice in a globalized world.”

Bernard Koch, Universität Innsbruck, Austria

Edward Elgar Publishing

The Lypiatts, 15 Lansdown Road, Cheltenham, Gloucestershire, GL50 2JA, UK

Tel: +44 (0) 1242 226934 Fax: +44 (0) 1242 262111 Email: info@e-elgar.co.uk

William Pott House, 9 Dewey Court, Northampton, MA 01060, USA

Tel: +1 413 584 5551 Fax: +1 413 584 9933 Email: elgarinfo@e-elgar.com

www.e-elgar.com www.elgaronline.com

Please note that colours may print a little different from this proof due to the process involved.